The Angola Visit Visa

Entry for tourism and short personal visits, including visa-free travel for UK citizens and many other nationalities.

| TOURISM (UK & MANY) | OTHER NATIONALITIES | ANNUAL LIMIT |
| --- | --- | --- |
| Visa-free, up to 30 days | Tourist e-Visa (~48h) | 90 days per year |

Angola has opened its doors to visitors. Citizens of the UK and many other countries can now travel for tourism with no visa at all, while others obtain a quick tourist e-Visa. This guide covers personal and leisure visits, for meetings and commercial activity, see our companion Angola Business Visa guide.

1 Can you travel visa-free?

Angola now grants visa-free tourist entry to citizens of a long list of countries, including the United Kingdom, for stays of up to 30 days, within a maximum of 90 days per calendar year. Travellers from countries not on the list can apply for a tourist e-Visa online before departure.

> IMPORTANT
>
> Visa-free entry is for tourism only. Any business, paid work or commercial activity requires a business visa arranged in advance, see our Angola Business Visa guide.

2 Applying for a tourist e-Visa (if required)

1 Confirm you need one

If your nationality is not visa-exempt for tourism, apply for the tourist e-Visa before you travel.

2 Gather your documents

Passport valid 6+ months with two blank pages, a passport photo, return / onward ticket and confirmed accommodation.

3 Apply online

Complete the official e-Visa (pre-visa) application and pay the fee. Processing is typically around 48 hours.

4 Travel & finalise on arrival

Carry your authorisation; it is finalised by immigration on entry where applicable.

3 Entry requirements

- Passport valid at least 6 months beyond arrival, with 2+ blank pages
- Return or onward ticket
- Confirmed accommodation
- Proof of sufficient funds
- International Certificate of Vaccination, yellow fever

4 Good to know

Stays & extensions

Tourist stays are up to 30 days and may be extended through the Migration Service (SME, Serviço de Migração e Estrangeiros), apply before your permitted stay ends.

Health

A yellow-fever vaccination certificate is required on entry; check other recommended vaccinations before travel.

Money & language

The currency is the Kwanza (AOA); the official language is Portuguese. Carry some local currency for arrival.

On arrival

Have your onward ticket, accommodation details and vaccination certificate ready for immigration.
